

I am completely opposed to the FCC proposal to eliminate the rules that limit television station ownership and bar cross-ownership by television and newspaper owners. These long-standing and very important restrictions are necessary to the free, unbiased flow of information in this country.